LIBERA
COLLECTION

LIBERA COLLECTION

Furniture inspired by the major works of the leading designers of the 30's, such as the ones of "Gruppo 7", among which there was Adalberto Libera.

"Libera" means "free", intended as "stylistic freedom"; a collection wherein each single piece of furniture has been "released" from rigid formalities, allowing individual uniqueness of design.

Each piece in the collection has a strong and independent personality, yet is bonded together by an invisible thread of timeless elegance, like musical notes in a perfect symphony.

"like musical notes in a perfect symphony."

Flavio Taietti - architetto

Born in Cantù in 1973.

During bachelor degree in Architecture at Politecnico of Milano, he became also journalist.

He completed his studies with a Master at Supsi of Lugano and with the inscription of Architects National Register.

After apprenticeship in architectural office in Como, he learns the importance of details in every working scale.

From 2005 he started working in interior luxury design, with a most famous luxury furniture company, specially from Brianza.

He works around the world, mostly in Russia, with seriousness, competence and good taste.

This is his first collection of furniture.

Alessandro Politi - designer

Born in Desio in 1983.

Graduated at European Institute of design in Milano in 2008.

Immediately after his studies, Alessandro began to work as textile designer for one of the most appreciated fashion & design brands in the world.

After 3 years as designer freelance, Alessandro started to cooperate with a well known high end fabrics producer of Italy.

He currently works as a project manager, taking care to the design and the development of furnishings and high quality fabrics for international market.

A professional grew through various work experiences, with a strong and appreciated artistic sensibility and great technical skills
